MANY CASES DISPOSED OF. In Rutland County Court at Yesterday's Session.

Rutland, Oct. 12.—Three criminal cases were disposed of in Rutland county court yesterday. Even Owens of Poultney, who was recently arrested in Wilkesbarre, Pa., and brought to this city, pleaded guilty to a charge of adultery, and was sentenced to serve not less than 18 months nor more than two years in the House of Correction. T. W. Barret, a local druggist holder of a fifth class license pleaded guilty in three counts, charging him with selling liquor illegally. Sentence will be pronounced later. The case against M. S. Bayless, L. A. Miner and W. W. Pratt for illegal selling were continued until later in the term.

John Pico, of West Rutland, who was arrested last summer while he was conducting a Sunday dance at his dancing pavilion, pleaded guilty to a charge of keeping liquor with intent to sell and was sentenced to serve from four to five months at hard labor in the House of Correction. When the officers descended upon the dancing pavilion, Pico was installed behind a bar which was built at one end of the room. On the bar was a pitcher of beer and beside him was a half barrel of the beverage.

The trial of W. H. Hanson on a charge of breach of the peace was begun yesterday. The respondent is charged with hitting Riley Winchell of Poultney, over the head with a pitchfork.

The Daylight Store

Dress Goods Sponged Free

All wool dress goods should be sponged before making up. We have two pieces of Fancy Dress Goods where we have had but one before. Price influenced our purchase and we expect that price will have something to do with selling it. We thought of this when we priced these Dress Goods.

Dress Goods

The only way that a reduction in price helps us is that the trade will buy more goods at eighty-seven cents than at one dollar, when the style and quality are the same.

When we say fifty-cent Dress Goods, we mean new style in latest colors and all wool. Good enough for any ordinary wear. Especially good for misses' whole costumes. When these are sponged free you are getting something for nothing.

Our new fancies at eighty-seven cents are one dollar goods of the very highest type, and sponging free saves you five cents per yard more.

Black Cat Hosiery will not satisfy every one, but the minority is very small. Our Winter numbers are exceptionally good.

Dress Goods

New style Dresses are taking new kinds of Dress Goods very freely. We would not advertise Dress Goods so often if we did not think that we had the goods wanted for these new dress ideas.

We have a fifty-inch cloth at $1.55 that is attracting best buyers. A part of these cloths are $1.50 and some are $1.75 values. Better see them.

The small cloth is a Green Autumn Cord, very wide, at $1.50 per yard.

No matter how hard we push colored Dress Goods, we never for a minute lose sight of our Black Dress Goods values and just now we can do you some good with our special prices.

Winter Underwear

While this Dress Goods sale is on we want to call your attention to our kind of Winter Underwear, such as:

Double fleece Jaeger Underwear for children at 25c each size and children's Bennington Wool starts at 30c. These are as good as can be had at our prices. These same kinds in boys' at same price.

Bennington Wool Underwear for ladies, also Munsing in both cotton and wool in single pieces at 50c and $1.00.

Munsing Union Suits made to fit the whole family, and while they are of the best made, they are as low priced as any ordinary kind. Children's Union Suits 50c and $1.00. Ladies' $1.00 to $3.00. See them in our window.

ORDER OF OWLS.

Remarkable Work in Organizing New Nest During the Last Four Days in Barre.

H. R. Caulfield, general organizer of the Order of Owls, secured in four days over fifty members toward the number he wants to get for the nest in this city. In looking over the list of names shown and considering the number of societies now in the city, it certainly emphasizes the old saying that "There is always room on top." Mr. Caulfield has shown extremely good judgment in selecting members by admitting none unless recommended to him by some one whom he knows to be a desirable citizen. From the present outlook the "Owls" promise to be one of the leading fraternal and social organizations of this place.
